Toronto, September 18th, 1918;

Sir. Robert Falconer,

President, Toronto University,

TORONTO

My Dear Sir Robert:

Some time ago it was suggested to me that there were a number of young French Canadian Cadets in Toronto training with the Royal Air Force. It was further suggested that those of us who were interested in the Bonne Entente movement here should show some hospitality to these young men. It was thought that we might do this by giving them a complimentary banquet. Steps were taken to find out the number of French Canadians in the Royal Air Force and I yesterday received a list through Senator Beaubien showing 460 men in the force. Many of these men are not in Toronto, and such an entertainment could only include those in the camps in the City and vicinity. I have seen General Hoare, the Commanding Officer and he is in hearty sympathy with the proposition, and will give it his support.

In order to discuss the matter further I have decided to call together a few of our friends at the National Club, Toronto, on Monday 23rd September, at 4 O'clock in the afternoon. Will you please let me know whether you can be present.

Yours Sincerely,

JMG/T.
